Lesson notes

IS-2.5 Al-Amin (Weeks 1–4)

Even before prophethood, the people of Makkah called Muhammad ﷺ As-Sadiq (the truthful) and Al-Amin (the trustworthy) and left their valuables with him. Story: when the Ka'bah was rebuilt, the tribes argued over who would place the Black Stone. They agreed the next man to enter would decide, and it was Al-Amin. He put the stone on a cloth, each tribe leader held a corner, and he set it in place himself, so everyone was satisfied. Discuss: how can we be trustworthy at home and school?

IS-2.2 Surah Al-Falaq and Surah An-Nas (Weeks 5–12)

- Al-Falaq (113), simple meaning: Say, I seek protection with the Lord of the daybreak, from the evil of what He created, from the evil of the dark night, from the evil of those who blow on knots, and from the evil of an envier when he envies.
- An-Nas (114), simple meaning: Say, I seek protection with the Lord of people, the King of people, the God of people, from the evil of the sneaking whisperer who whispers into people's hearts, from among jinn and people.

These two surahs, with Al-Ikhlas, are often recited for protection before sleeping.
