THE NOVA RESEARCH CURRICULUM

Urdu

Grade 3 · Term 3

Student edition

Outcomes: UR-3.4 writing a note or invitation, UR-3.6 one-minute talk and reciting a poem, UR-3.1 final reading check.

Lesson notes

UR-3.4 Writing a note or invitation (Weeks 1–4)

Parts of an invitation: who it is to (پیارے دوست علی)، what (میری سالگرہ)، when (تاریخ اور وقت)، where (پتہ)، and who it is from (آپ کا دوست، احمد). Children write an invitation to a class event and a short thank-you note.

UR-3.6 One-minute talk and a poem (Weeks 5–8)

Talk topics: میرا پسندیدہ تہوار، میرا شہر، میرا پسندیدہ کھیل. Each child also recites one children's poem chosen by the school and says in a sentence what it means.

UR-3.1 Final reading check (Weeks 9–10)

Each child reads an unseen grade text; target 95% of words correct with correct pauses.

Workbook pages

Page	Outcome	Activity
1–2	UR-3.4	Invitation template; thank-you note.
3	UR-3.6	Talk planner: three points.

Question bank

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
1	UR-3.4	An invitation must say when the event is. True or false.	True / False
2	UR-3.4	Which line starts an invitation?	شکریہ / پیارے دوست علی / خدا حافظ / آپ کا دوست
3	UR-3.4	«آپ کا دوست، احمد» comes at the ... of the invitation.	start / end / middle
4	UR-3.4	Write one sentence inviting a friend to your house.	_____

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
5	UR-3.6	When we give a talk we speak ...	clearly / very fast / in a whisper / with our back turned
6	UR-3.6	We should understand the meaning of a poem we recite. True or false.	True / False