THE NOVA RESEARCH CURRICULUM

English

Grade 4 · Term 3

Student edition

Outcomes: EN-4.6 informal letters and invitations, EN-4.7 two-minute talk and discussion, EN-4.1 final fluency check.

Lesson notes

EN-4.6 Letters and invitations (Weeks 1–4)

Informal letter: address and date (top right), greeting (Dear Sara,), body in paragraphs, closing (Your friend,), name. Invitation: what, when, where, who from, RSVP. Extension: a formal application to the principal for leave.

EN-4.7 Two-minute talk and discussion (Weeks 5–8)

Plan three points on a cue card; open with a question; close with a summary. In discussions: take turns, ask relevant questions, agree or disagree politely ("I see your point, but ...").

EN-4.1 Final fluency check (Weeks 9–10)

One minute on an unseen grade text. Nova target: 80 words a minute at 95% accuracy; extension 110.

Workbook pages

Page	Outcome	Activity
1–2	EN-4.6	Label the parts of a letter; write a letter to a cousin.
3	EN-4.6	Invitation to a class event.
4	EN-4.7	Talk cue card and self-check.

Question bank

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
1	EN-4.6	In an informal letter, the date goes ...	at the bottom / at the top right / in the middle / after the name
2	EN-4.6	Which is a suitable greeting for a friend?	Dear Ahmed, / To whom it may concern / Sir / Respected
3	EN-4.6	An invitation must say when and where. True or false.	True / False
4	EN-4.6	RSVP asks the guest to ...	bring food / reply / come early / dress up
5	EN-4.6	Write a closing for a letter to a friend.	_____

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
6	EN-4.7	A polite way to disagree is …	"You're wrong!" / "I see your point, but …" / staying silent / shouting
7	EN-4.7	A good talk has a beginning, middle and end. True or false.	True / False
8	EN-4.7	Write one question to ask after a classmate's talk on cricket.	_____