THE NOVA RESEARCH CURRICULUM

English

Grade 7 · Term 3

Student edition

Outcomes: EN-7.4 news report, summary and formal complaint; EN-7.5 formal debate with rebuttal.

Lesson notes

- News report (Weeks 1–4): headline; lead paragraph answering who, what, when, where, why; most important facts first (inverted pyramid); a quotation; past tense and third person. Write about a school event.
- Summary and complaint (Weeks 5–8): summary: main ideas only, own words, about one third of the length. Formal complaint: addresses, date, subject, the problem, details (date, place), what you want done, polite firm tone, "Yours faithfully". Task: letter to the municipal office about rubbish in the street.
- EN-7.5 Debate (Weeks 9–12): motion; proposition and opposition teams; chair and timekeeper; each speaker makes a point with evidence; rebuttal answers the other side's point. Motion: "This house believes school uniforms should be compulsory."

Workbook pages

Page	Task
1–2	News report plan and final copy.
3	Summary of a 300-word passage.
4	Formal complaint letter.
5	Debate speech and rebuttal notes.

Question bank

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
1	EN-7.4	The first paragraph of a news report should answer ...	only who / who, what, when, where and why / the writer's opinion / a joke
2	EN-7.4	News reports put the most important facts ...	at the end / first / in the middle / nowhere
3	EN-7.4	A formal complaint should be polite but firm. True or false.	True / False
4	EN-7.4	A summary includes examples and repeated points. True or false.	True / False
5	EN-7.4	Write a headline for a report on your school's sports day.	_____

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
6	EN-7.5	In a debate, a rebuttal is …	your opening line / an answer to the other team's point / the chair's ruling / the vote
7	EN-7.5	The team that supports the motion is the …	opposition / proposition / chair / audience
8	EN-7.5	Write one rebuttal to "Uniforms cost families too much money."	_____