THE NOVA RESEARCH CURRICULUM

English

Grade 8 · Term 3

Student edition

Outcomes: EN-8.4 speech and short story; EN-8.5 leading a group discussion and a persuasive speech; EN-8.6 integrity.

Lesson notes

- Speech writing (Weeks 1–4): greet the audience; hook; three points; strong ending. Rhetorical devices: rhetorical questions, the rule of three, repetition, direct address ("you"), facts and statistics with sources, emotional appeal. Topic: "Every young person can protect Pakistan's environment."
- Short story (Weeks 5–8): plan character, setting, conflict, climax and resolution; choose first or third person and keep the voice; show, don't tell; dialogue punctuation. 600–800 words.
- EN-8.5 (Weeks 9–12): lead a group discussion: set the question, invite everyone, keep time, summarise. Deliver a three-minute persuasive speech with eye contact and pace. Peer rubric.

Workbook pages

Page	Task
1–2	Speech plan and draft with three devices marked.
3–4	Story plan and final story.
5	Discussion leader checklist and speech rubric.

Question bank

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
1	EN-8.4	"Shouldn't every child have clean water?" is a ...	simile / rhetorical question / metaphor / quotation
2	EN-8.4	"We will plan, we will act, we will succeed" uses ...	alliteration / the rule of three / irony / a pun
3	EN-8.4	"Show, don't tell" means ...	use more pictures / let actions and details reveal feelings / write less / tell the ending first
4	EN-8.4	A short story should stay in one point of view unless there is a reason to change. True or false.	True / False
5	EN-8.4	Rewrite "He was scared" using show, don't tell.	_____

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
6	EN-8.5	A good discussion leader …	speaks the most / invites everyone to speak / ends early / chooses one side
7	EN-8.5	Facts in a persuasive speech should come from reliable sources. True or false.	True / False