THE NOVA RESEARCH CURRICULUM

English

Grade 5 · Term 3

Student edition

Outcomes: EN-5.6 formal application, notice and report; EN-5.7 presentation and debate; EN-5.8 respect and responsibility in discussion; EN-5.1 final fluency check.

Lesson notes

EN-5.6 Functional writing (Weeks 1–4)

Application: To, The Principal, school name; date; subject line; Respected Sir/Madam; reason in clear sentences; request; Yours obediently, name, class. Notice: heading NOTICE, date, title, who, what, when, where, issued by. Report: headline, who, what, when, where, why, in past tense.

EN-5.7 Presentation and debate (Weeks 5–8)

A three-minute presentation with slides from Computing (CC-5.3). Debate rules: two teams, a motion ("Homework should be banned"), opening speeches, one rebuttal each, a polite closing. EN-5.8: respectful language and listening are part of the marks.

EN-5.1 Final fluency check (Weeks 9–10)

Unseen grade text. Nova target: 100 words a minute at 95% accuracy; extension 130.

Workbook pages

Page	Outcome	Activity
1	EN-5.6	Application for sick leave.
2	EN-5.6	Notice for a book fair.
3	EN-5.6	Report on sports day for the school newsletter.
4	EN-5.7	Debate planner: three points and one rebuttal.

Question bank

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
1	EN-5.6	A formal application ends with ...	Love, / Your friend, / Yours obediently, / Bye,
2	EN-5.6	A notice must say when and where the event is. True or false.	True / False
3	EN-5.6	A news report is usually written in the ... tense.	future / past / present continuous / none
4	EN-5.6	Write a subject line for an application asking for two days' leave.	_____

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
5	EN-5.7	In a debate, answering the other team's point is called a ...	motion / rebuttal / title / vote
6	EN-5.7	We should interrupt speakers to win a debate. True or false.	True / False
7	EN-5.8	Which is respectful in a discussion?	laughing at answers / "I respect your view, but ..." / shouting / ignoring
8	EN-5.7	Write one argument for or against "School should start later".	_____