THE NOVA RESEARCH CURRICULUM

English

Grade 6 · Term 2

Student edition

Outcomes: EN-6.2 (part) modal verbs; EN-6.3 five-paragraph essay.

Lesson notes

- EN-6.2 Modals (Weeks 1–4): can/could (ability), may/might (possibility), must/have to (obligation), should (advice), will/would. Role-play: giving advice, asking permission.
- EN-6.3 Essay (Weeks 5–12): introduction with a hook and thesis, three body paragraphs (topic sentence, evidence, explanation), conclusion. Plan with a graphic organiser; draft; peer-review with a checklist; final copy. Topics: "A place I will never forget", "The importance of clean water".

Workbook pages

Page	Task
1–2	Choose the right modal; write five pieces of advice.
3–5	Essay organiser, draft and final copy with peer checklist.

Question bank

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
1	EN-6.2	You ___ wear a seatbelt. It's the law.	might / must / could / may
2	EN-6.2	___ I borrow your pen, please?	Must / May / Should / Will
3	EN-6.2	You look tired. You ___ go to bed early.	should / must not / can't / might not
4	EN-6.2	"She can to swim." This is correct. True or false.	True / False
5	EN-6.3	The thesis statement belongs in the …	conclusion / introduction / second body paragraph / title
6	EN-6.3	Each body paragraph should start with a topic sentence. True or false.	True / False
7	EN-6.3	Write a thesis statement for "The importance of clean water".	_____
8	EN-6.3	A conclusion should introduce a brand-new argument. True or false.	True / False