THE NOVA RESEARCH CURRICULUM

English

Grade 6 · Term 3

Student edition

Outcomes: EN-6.4 letters, emails and diary entries; EN-6.5 prepared talk.

Lesson notes

- EN-6.4 Letters (Weeks 1–4): formal letter (address, date, "Dear Sir/Madam", subject, reason, request, "Yours faithfully") and informal letter (friendly tone, "Yours sincerely" or "Love"). Task: letter to the principal asking for a science club.
- EN-6.4 Emails and diary (Weeks 5–8): email subject lines, polite openings, short paragraphs, sign-off; never share passwords or personal details. Diary entries: past tense, feelings, first person.
- EN-6.5 Talk (Weeks 9–12): 2-minute prepared talk on a chosen topic: opening, three points, closing; eye contact, pace, voice. Peer feedback with a rubric. Year review of grammar.

Workbook pages

Page	Task
1–2	One formal and one informal letter.
3	Write an email to a teacher.
4	Three diary entries.
5	Talk plan and rubric.

Question bank

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
1	EN-6.4	A formal letter that starts "Dear Sir" ends with ...	Love / Yours faithfully / See you / Bye
2	EN-6.4	Which belongs only in a formal letter?	a joke / a subject line / slang / emojis
3	EN-6.4	A diary entry is usually written in the first person. True or false.	True / False
4	EN-6.4	It is fine to put your password in an email to a friend. True or false.	True / False
5	EN-6.4	Write a subject line for an email asking for homework you missed.	_____
6	EN-6.5	A good talk ends with ...	a new topic / a short closing that sums up / silence / a list of sources only

#	Outcome	Question	Your answer
7	EN-6.5	Speaking very fast helps the audience follow. True or false.	True / False